On a mention being made, the case is called.

Shri S.C. Verma, counsel for the petitioner.

State by Shri Akhil Agrawal, Panel Lawyer.

Heard.

It is submitted that the transfer of the petitioner has been made against the policy. He further submits that for the present the petitioners may be given an opportunity of filing the detailed representation before the competent authority of the respondents, which shall be considered on its own merits in accordance with law.

Having considered and without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, in the opinion of this Court, ends of justice will be served if a direction is given to the petitioners to make a detailed representation raising grievances before the competent authority of the respondents along with a copy of the petition and this order, within 10 days, and on such representation being filed, the competent authority of the respondents shall decide the same on its own merits in accordance with law as early as possible preferably within 6 weeks from the date of receipt of the representation. It is made clear that if any grievance still remains, the petitioner may avail the remedy available under the law.

With the aforesaid observations, this petition stands disposed of.

Consequently M.W.P.No.2799/2004 also stands disposed of.
